Culture in Contemporary Japan
This course will critically examine anthropological studies of culture in contemporary Japan.
ARC101 E	CREDIT:3 AUTUMN
Introduction to Eastern Art
An introduction to the study methods and masterworks of East Asian art. The major focus will be on the arts of China, but within a broader Asian context that will include India, Korea and Japan.
ARC205 E	CREDIT:3 SPRING
Japanese Archaeology
Cultural developments in Japan in the Palaeolithic and the Jomon periods, as understood through archaeological materials. Fieldwork on the ICU pre-Jomon and Jomon sites.
ARC211 E	CREDIT:3 WINTER Offered Alternate Year
History of Japanese Art I
Study of Japanese painting, calligraphy and craftwork from the ancient through the early modern periods, with a focus on the Edo period (1615-1868), especially the Rimpa school associated with Ogata Korin. Students will consider Japanese artistic products in light of various concepts, including “classicism,” “revival,” “school,” “decoration,” and “design.”
ARC212 E	CREDIT:3 WINTER Offered Alternate Year
History of Japanese Art II
This course will survey Japanese art from the mid- nineteenth century to the contemporary era. The course will cover important artworks such as painting, crafts, architecture and photography in various contexts, including artistic modernism, imperialism, gender, and the mass media.
BUS202 E	CREDIT:3 WINTER
Business and Society in Japan
This course adopts a comparative approach to an examination of Japanese business and society. Topics to be dealt with include: attitudes and obligations in employment systems, familistic aspects of company organization, company benefits for families; welfare concepts; labor unions and paternalism, employee participation in business decision; family businesses, etc.

FAQ

Q1: Is there a minimum/maximum course load at ICU?

A1: The normal academic load for ICU students is 13 units each term, and with the approval of the academic advisor, students may take courses within the limit of a maximum of 18 units.

Students on student visa status are required to take at least 9 units per term*, or less for those who take Japanese Language Programs courses.

ICU is on a trimester system with Autumn (September to November), Winter (December to March) and Spring (April to June) term.*

Academic Calendar; <https://www.icu.ac.jp/en/about/calendar/>

Q2: When do students register for courses?

A2: At the beginning of each term at ICU. No prior registration is necessary before arrival. Students who intend to take a Japanese Language Program course must take a Placement Test (written & oral) at the beginning of the first term at ICU.
