International House (I-House)

- Please apply to live in an I-House only if you agree to the rules outlined in the Ritsumeikan International House Guidebooks. Please thoroughly read the Guidebooks for each I-House accessible from the links below.
Kinugasa Campus <IJL & OSE students>
Osaka Ibaraki Campus <BT students>
- International Houses (I-Houses) are university-run dormitories. There are a limited number of rooms in each dormitory. Therefore, we are not always able to guarantee a place in our accommodations. Please also note that once your housing location has been decided, you will not be able to change or cancel it.

Regarding Visa Application

- Applicants that hold Japanese citizenship must enter Japan using their Japanese passport. There have been previous cases in which an applicant unknowingly held Japanese citizenship. If you believe there is a possibility that you may hold Japanese citizenship, please confirm your situation with your family and, if you do hold citizenship, please be sure to apply to SKP using your Japanese passport.
- If you hold multiple citizenship, please make sure to upload the passport you will use to enter Japan.
- In the SKP Application Form, you will be asked to input the number of times you have entered Japan. Even if you have changed nationalities, please include the number of times you have entered Japan before changing nationalities. Please also include the number of times you have transited or had a connecting flight in Japan. Applicants must accurately report the number of times they have entered Japan for visa application purposes. If requested by the Japan Immigration Bureau, you may be asked to submit a copy of your passport pages with the Japan arrival (landing permission) stamp(s).
- An application for visa is made by the applicant him/herself at the Japanese Embassy / Consulate General with jurisdiction over the area in which the applicant lives or those with jurisdiction over the country of which the applicant's passport is issued. You cannot apply in another country. For more information, please check the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' website.
- For more information regarding visa applications, please check the Japanese Bureau of Immigration's website.
