PROGRAMMES FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS	ARCHITECTURE (master level) Exchange students are welcomed in the first, second or third semester of our English taught Master of Architecture (eq. to 4th or 5th year level): https://arch.kuleuven.be/english/studying/students-from-abroad/programs-for-exchange-students-in-architecture. Students can select the design studio and elective of their own choice in the learning agreement but this is subject to change based on the availability at arrival. The design studio landscape is constructed out of 4 engagements: urban cultures, craftsmanship, legacies and mediating tactics. These engagements are organized across our two campuses: http://architecturemasterstudios.be (max 1 studio per semester, upon availability). The elective offer can be checked via: https://arch.kuleuven.be/english/education/electives (max 1 elective per semester, upon availability). Thesis work is not organized for exchange students! URBAN PLANNING AND SPATIAL DESIGN (master level) Exchange students are welcomed in the third semester of the programme at our campus in Brussels. Find out more about the course offer on https://arch.kuleuven.be/english/studying/students-from-abroad/course-urban-planning.

	INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE (bachelor level) Exchange students in Interior Architecture are welcomed in a fully English taught program with courses from our Interior Architecture and Architecture programs (offered in Ghent): www.interiorarchitecturekuleuven.be and https://arch.kuleuven.be/english/studying/programmes/interior-architecture-exchange-programme PhD Candidates are requested to forward their proposal via mail, including the invitation from a KU Leuven supervisor. https://architectuur.kuleuven.be/departementarchitectuur/english/research/research

Register for a residence permit in Ghent Register for a residence permit in Brussels
ACCOMMODATION	The faculty does not own student accommodation. Therefore, you will have to rent a room on the private housing market for the duration of your stay. To help you in your search, it is best to contact the department of Student Services (see contact details below). The staff will put you in touch with trustworthy organizations on the private housing market. They also know which rooms can be rented from other students who are studying abroad during your stay in Belgium. If your home country is not too far away from the Belgian city you will be studying in, it may be a good idea to pop over for a weekend and visit a number of student rooms. The price of a room, flat or studio varies according to the city, neighborhood and the type of accommodation (studios and flats are more expensive). Contact & more info: Campus Sint-Lucas Brussels: Anke Van Riel - anke.vanriel@luca-arts.be Campus Sint-Lucas Ghent: Liselotte Dobbelaere - liselotte.dobbelaere@luca-arts.be
