ACCOMMODATION

|--|---|
| General information about accommodation for exchange students: | All applications for accommodation are submitted online. Once your application to study has been approved, you will receive an email from the Student Accommodation Centre explaining how to apply for accommodation. Please note that on-campus accommodation is extremely limited. Rooms are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis until the maximum capacity has been reached. This means that there is no guarantee that incoming exchange students will be allocated rooms in Halls of Residence, therefore you must be prepared to live off-campus if required. Further information about accommodation can be found at: Accommodation Loughborough University (lboro.ac.uk) |
| Accommodation application deadline: | For Semester 1 and Full Year exchanges commencing in October 2022, rooms can be reserved online from early June to end July 2022. From end July 2022, the Room Reservation option will close, but the Room Preferencing option will remain open. For Semester 2 exchanges commencing in February 2023, applications for accommodation can be made from November 2022 onwards. Accommodation offers will be sent out by email in December 2022/January 2023. |
| Is accommodation available for disabled students? | For specific accommodation requirements, see: Specific requirements Accommodation Loughborough University (lboro.ac.uk) |
| Cost of living: | Loughborough is not an expensive town to live in by UK standards, but students must consider the cost of accommodation, food, study materials, local travel and other general living expenses. It is estimated that, when students budget for the duration of their studies, they should allow approximately £850 - £1,100 month, but personal expenditure will vary from student to student. |
