Extracurricular Activities

The International Office offers a free extracurricular program including guided tours in Hamburg and surrounding cities, visits to museums, lectures on the German political system and current political situation, and social events with Bucerius students.

Exchange students are also welcome to participate in the numerous student activity groups on campus.

Housing

Bucerius Law School does not have on-campus housing, but it works to secure rooms in various (privately-run) residence halls in Hamburg.

The International Office provides a list of housing resources/platforms to accepted students. Often Bucerius LLB students who will be studying abroad sublet their apartment or room to international students.

Health Insurance

Health insurance coverage is mandatory and should ideally be purchased through Bucerius. Information will be provided to admitted students.

Student health insurances must fulfill certain requirements (no payment limit, deductible < €5,000, pre-existing conditions cannot be excluded, among others). This must be demonstrated if students wish to use an insurance that is not purchased through Bucerius.

EHIC and GHIC are acceptable.

Living Expenses

Recommended budget: €7,000 - €7,500 for four months.

A detailed list of the individual amounts can be found on our website:

<http://buceri.us/finances>.

Immigration Information

All non-EU citizens must obtain a student visa / residence permit for their stay in Germany.

The International Office provides necessary documentation and detailed information to accepted students.

Some students will have to apply for a visa before arrival, others can enter Germany without a visa and apply for a residence permit after arrival.

Students should refer to the website of the German embassy/consulate in their country of residence. Ultimately, it is the students' responsibility to receive their visa on time.

Equal Opportunities

Bucerius Law School values student diversity and is committed to providing a learning environment where there is no discrimination on the basis of gender, race, religion/belief, age, disability, pregnancy and maternity, sexual orientation, socio-economic background or other irrelevant distinction. No student should feel disadvantaged or excluded from class participation.

Furthermore, Bucerius Law School tries to ensure that accessibility needs are met. The building, its lecture rooms and parking facilities are wheelchair-accessible.

The city of Hamburg continuously works on improving accessibility.

Further Services

- Bucerius provides a public transportation ticket for the greater area Hamburg for all exchange students free of charge.
- The International Office organizes a "buddy system" between exchange students and German students.
- Students from our partners receive a discount of 15% off the full tuition fee for their participation in one of our Summer Programs.
