IE University Campus in Segovia

Located in the city of Segovia, IE University offers an immersive campus experience. It is housed in the Convent of Santa Cruz la Real, a historic building declared a national heritage site in 1931.

Our campus in Segovia is only 25 minutes from Madrid via high-speed train, and welcomes students from over 100 countries to a global university setting, with an atmosphere that is both academic and lively. Here, you will discover an ideal student environment where you will make lifelong friends, and be part of a close-knit community.

Segovia is a truly enchanting city, full of narrow, winding alleyways, fascinating historic sites and breathtaking architecture. Known throughout Spain for its delicious, traditional cuisine and excellent climate, Segovia is not just a great place to visit, but a great place to live.

As a student in Segovia, you will enjoy the serene, natural beauty of the Segovian landscape, with the hustle and bustle of the Spanish capital a short train distance away.

Roman aqueduct of Segovia is one of the most significant and best-preserved ancient monuments left on the Iberian Peninsula.

Segovia is only 25 minutes from Madrid by high-speed train, and welcomes students to a global university setting, with an atmosphere that is both academic and lively.

Each year an average of 130 different countries are represented on campus with over 75% of our students coming from abroad. Our faculty is made up of over 36 nationalities. With small class sizes and a 15:1 student to professor ratio, students have a truly personalized learning experience.

Destination Spain

Spain offers a fantastic mix of world-class education and up-and-coming career opportunities, finished off with a large slice of the good life.

Ten reasons Spain should be your university destination.

1

TOP-TIER CHOICE IN UNIVERSITIES

Students coming to study in Spain have an enviable problem—there are just so many options! In total, there are 76 public or private universities in the country, which can be found in many diverse and wonderful locations.

2

WELL-RESPECTED WORLDWIDE

Many of the universities in Spain consistently perform highly on international rankings.

3

A HUB FOR TECH STARTUPS

Barcelona and Madrid are fast becoming places-to-be for any future-forward, entrepreneurial startup professionals.

4

GROWING JOB PROSPECTS

The capital of Madrid in particular is fast becoming a growing financial hub, leading to more job opportunities in finance and economics.

5

LIVE BETTER FOR LESS

Spain is an incredibly affordable place to live. Outside the larger cities, renting and leisure prices are particularly low, allowing students to live well and enjoy their free time.

6

WEATHER FOR ALL TASTES

Spain's Costa del Sol holds the record for the sunniest place in Spain with an average of 320 days of glorious sunshine throughout the year. But the further you go up the country, the more this changes. and wine... the list of delicious Spanish dishes goes on. What's more, throughout the country, different regions have their own specialities.

Mercado de San Miguel

7

IMPORTANT INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

How would you like to be able to communicate with another 420 million people? By living in Spain, you're in the perfect place to learn the world's third most-spoken native language.

8

DELICIOUS CUISINE

Spanish omelette, cured meats, taps and wine... the list of delicious Spanish dishes goes on. What's more, throughout the country, different regions have their own specialities.

9

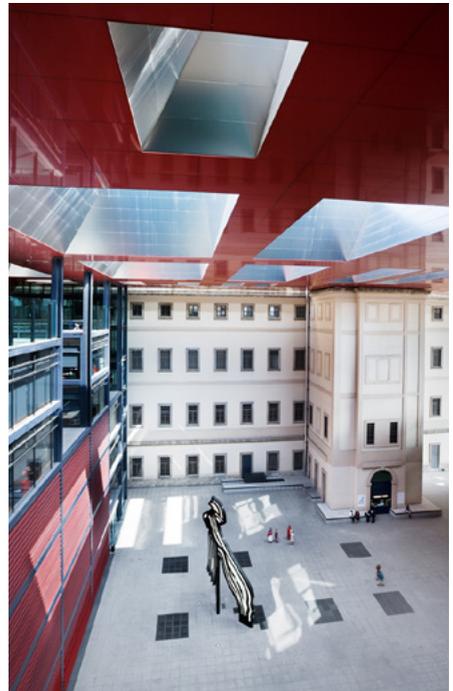

CULTURE AND FESTIVALS

If there's one thing the Spanish have in abundance, it's a rich culture and lively festivals. For art lovers, there's everything from the intricate Islamic artwork of La Alhambra in Granada to Madrid's world-famous museums to Barcelona's avant-garde art scene. And as for festivals, again each region has its own—each as exciting as the last.

SAFE AND SECURE

You can fully enjoy the Spanish lifestyle and reach the next level in your educational journey in an entirely secure environment. Spain is among the safest countries in Europe, with highly developed human rights laws and a friendly, tolerant society. Serious crime is very low and (apart from the odd pickpocket—watch out!) even the biggest cities are wonderful places to live the student life to the fullest, without fear or intimidation.

Admission Process

Exchange and visiting students may study for one or two semesters at IE University. However, there are important differences in the application process.

EXCHANGE STUDENT ADMISSIONS

Your home institution must be an IE University partner through a formal exchange agreement. The student's current university must send official notification directly to IE University confirming the student's status as an Exchange Student applicant. Once IE University receives this notice, the student may begin the application process.

Once admitted to IE University, you remain enrolled with your home institution.

- You continue to pay your home institution fees.
- All courses you participate in will grant you credit toward your degree, according to the agreement of your institution.
- If you are a non-European national, please follow the requirements for a student visa.

VISITING STUDENT ADMISSIONS

If your home institution does not have a formal exchange agreement with IE University you may apply as a Visiting Student and study for one or two semesters at IE University.

You may apply directly to IE University by completing the admission application form for the Visiting Student Program.

- You will pay fees to IE University
- You must consult with your home institution regarding credits that can be transferred toward your degree program.
- If you are a non-European national, please follow the requirements for student visas.

OTHER OPTIONS

If you wish to transfer to IE University as a full-time undergraduate student, you must complete the admissions process.
