THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

Assessment of Language Proficiency

The below student has applied to participate in UQ's Semester-based Exchange. As the student is applying to study at an institution where the courses are not taught in English, the GEx Office requires an assessment of their proficiency in the required language. These assessments are normally obtained from the relevant Major Convenor within the School of Languages and Cultures.

Recommended levels:*

B2/C1 or above:	Student is ready to study at university in a foreign language.
B1:	Student requires at least another semester of study or an equivalent intensive language course before studying in the foreign language.
A1/A2:	Student should not be approved to take courses in a foreign language.

Please refer to the levels developed by the Common European Framework (https://www.efset.org/cefr/) to indicate the applicant's current level of language proficiency for each of the language skills (by checking the appropriate skill/level box).
