

Faculty of Medicine Snapshot: Student-Staff Partnership Projects

Purpose of Report

The purpose of this Report is to provide the Faculty of Medicine senior leadership team with a high-level overview of the Medicine Partnership Projects that have occurred from the period of May to November 2018, as part of the UQ Student-Staff Partnership (SSP) Project initiative.

Context

In 2017, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) approved Student Strategy funding for a large-scale implementation of Student-Staff Partnership Projects. Student-Staff Partnership Projects aim to create a cultural transformation at UQ where Students and Staff connect as equals, partners and co-collaborators on projects that seek to enhance the student experience at UQ. Further information on this initiative can be found here. Table 1 highlights the funding allocation model, as approved for Student Strategy Funding.

Year	No. of Student Partners	Allocated funding for grants
2018	350	$350,000
2019	600	$600,000
2020	800	$400,000

2018 University SSP Projects Update

The operationalisation of SSP Projects commenced in May 2018. Since this time, 338 Student Partners have either completed projects, or are currently collaborating on projects with Staff Partners.

Approximately 27% of Student Partners are undertaking postgraduate studies, with 73% undertaking undergraduate studies. Approximately 28% are international students, and 72% are domestic students.

There are currently 111 projects that have been funded through the Student-Staff Partnerships initiative. 72 of these projects are contextualised within the curriculum, and 39 are within the broader student experience space. Approximately 97 academic staff and 48 professional staff have collaborated on projects. Some illustrative examples of projects include:

- Student Partners as Consultants, generating feedback and evaluating the course redesign prior to implementation (UQ2U project).
- Co-developing digital literacy modules and identifying areas in which these modules can be embedded within the curriculum.
- Co-developing and implementing a Student Engagement Strategy for Entrepreneurship at UQ.
- Co-developing a short online module to support students succeeding in blended courses (UQ2U).
- Establishing good practice, contextualised guidelines for Student Representatives at UQ.

2018 Medicine SSP Projects Update

In total, 4 partnership projects were based within the Faculty of Medicine from the period of May to November, 2018. Figure 2 provides a snapshot of the partnership projects according to Faculty / Unit.

Brief descriptions of the 4 Medicine partnership projects are shown in Table 2.

Staff Project Lead	Title of project	Aims	Deliverables / Outcomes	Number of student partners engaged in project
A/Prof Mark Coulthard and Dr Sisira Edirippulige	Creating digital health curriculum in Women's and Children's Health (Children's Health Queensland partnering with the UQ Centre for Online Health)	This project aims to better understand how digital health is taught in medical schools around the world. NB: Project Ongoing.	This partnership project will develop a plan for a Digital Health elective to be delivered to fourth year Medical students during their Women's & Children's Health semester. The partnership team will undertake a scoping study to guide the formulation of learning activities.	4
Dr Sisira Edirippulige and Dr Nigel Armfield	Medical students' perspectives on digital health	The objective of this project is to understand the perceptions of current medical students within the University about digital health education. NB: Project Ongoing.	This project will conduct a qualitative exploratory study on the perspectives of UQ medical students on digital health through semi-structured focus groups. Recommendations will be made by the team regarding how digital health may be embedded within the curriculum. The team will also submit a research article or conference presentation based on the findings of this study.	5
Preetha Thomas	Evaluating and improving a redesigned course in Public Health Nutrition (NUTR3011)	Understanding Population Nutrition (NUTR3011) is the first exposure to Nutrition for a diverse range of students within the field of Public Health. This course was recently redesigned in light of previous student feedback. This partnership project aims to engage with	This project will evaluate and improve assessment tasks and task descriptions for the course NUTR3011. This project will also seek to design support activities to ensure that learnings.	5 students in enhancing the assessment tasks of this course. NB: Project Ongoing.

Dr Charlotte Young	BIOM3200 Biomedical Science	This project aimed to re-design the capstone course BIOM3200 to be more relevant to the diverse student cohort. Specifically, the project aimed to engage with Student Partners in developing resources and more authentic assessment items to improve the student experience for future BIOM3200 cohorts.	This project re-designed BIOM3200, which involved creating three different assessment streams and accompanying resources. These co-developed resources included: a diagram of Biomedical students' career pathways; task description and criteria sheets; worksheets; and templates.	5

Enhancements for 2019

In the next phase of the initiative, the UQ Student-Staff Partnerships team will be making the following amendments in response to feedback received from Student and Staff Partners and Student Representatives. Now that systems have been established, the UQ Student-Staff Partnerships team is in the position to roll-out these further supports:

- As of 2019, there will be four main rounds in which UQ students and/or staff can submit projects. Timelines are provided on the Student-Staff Partnership Project website and in Appendix A.
- A suite of Professional Development Workshops for UQ Student Representatives and Student Partners will be provided. Topic areas have been identified through Student Representative and Student/Staff Partner feedback. The list of sessions for 2019 is provided in Appendix B.
- The creation of Project Streams for Student-Staff Partnership Projects in consultation with a range of stakeholders. These include: Teaching & Learning; Student Experience; and Governance & Strategy. Descriptions are provided in Appendix C.
- The development of a mentoring network for 2019 Student Representatives and Partners. Based upon the findings of the scoping study currently underway, a set of key recommendations will be delivered to the UQ Student-Staff Partnerships Operational Group.
- Review and re-development of content for all project guidelines, forms and webpages in preparation for 2019. Feedback was elicited from a range of stakeholders to enhance these documents.
- As of Round 1, 2019, Inductions will increase in duration from 1 to 2 hours to provide opportunities for groups to develop clearer partnership expectations at the commencement of their projects. The UQ Student-Staff Partnerships team is collaborating with HASS Student Futures and Student Partners in the re-design of these Inductions. The team will pilot holding Inductions in streams to ensure that content is contextualised according to the project stream.
- Faculty Snapshots will be created for each Partnership Round to enable greater Faculty buy-in, recognition of Partners, and to identify areas of synergy. This Faculty Snapshot will be provided to Faculty AD(A)s and Executive Deans.
- Information and Consultation sessions will be run in conjunction with rounds to provide support for Partners in scoping their projects prior to submission; highlighting the process involved in projects; provide strategies and tips for students when applying to projects; and answer questions of students and staff. Previously, one information session was held per month.
- The initiation of networking events to enable and foster peer mentoring and knowledge-sharing amongst Student and Staff Partners across a range of projects. Prior to these events, opportunities will be provided for partners to identify themselves as Champions, and they will be identified at the commencement of the event. During the event, these Partners will be available to provide practical strategies, listen to challenges and mentor other partners.

Challenges

- Recognition of staff involvement in initiative: Engaging in the process of partnership takes time, and thus staff must invest time to engage in partnership. Some Staff Partners have raised concerns that the current workload model does not support academic, professional and sessional (casual) staff members to collaborate in partnership projects. This requires structural changes to performance matrix's and greater buy-in from university executive through formalised recognition of staff involvement in partnership projects. It is envisaged that the Faculty Snapshots will heighten awareness of the range of staff involved in this initiative. The team is also collaborating with a range of stakeholders in determining ways in which staff may be further recognised.

- Sustainability post-2020: As with strategic university funding, there are concerns over sustainability post-funding. A key challenge facing the initiative is thus how to sustain momentum and the lifespan of the initiative after funding ceases. At its core, this initiative seeks to create a cultural transformation at UQ – however this takes significant time. A positive step has been the immediate co-funding of this initiative. Whilst co-funding was envisaged to commence in 2020, in the first phase of the implementation, co-funding immediately commenced with the HASS Student Futures team and the Faculty of Science.

Appendix C: Partnership Project Streams

Teaching & Learning

Student-Staff Partnership Projects within the Teaching & Learning Stream seek to enhance curriculum content, design and facilitation. Examples may include

- Students Partners as Pedagogical Consultants or Advisors on courses. Students and Staff generate feedback with students within that course, conducting observations of teaching and collaborating to enhance, innovate, or co-create curriculum.
- Student Partners as Course Co-designers. Students and Staff collaborate on course design / development including the creation of interactive content, or innovative assessment or learning activities.
- Student and Staff Partners collaboratively integrating high-quality, learner-centred and inclusive course content and materials online.

Student Experience

Student-Staff Partnership Projects within the Student Experience Stream seek to enhance the academic, non-academic and social aspects of the UQ student experience. Examples may include:

- Student and Staff Partners co-facilitating workshops or events to enhance the student experience (such as: sense of belonging; networking with peers; employability development).
- Student and Staff Partners co-developing initiatives or programs that contribute to the UQ student experience.
- Student and Staff Partners co-developing materials and support resources for educational campaigns (e.g. diversity, sexual misconduct etc.).
- Student and Staff Partners analysing the success of student experience initiatives.
- Student and Staff Partners collaborating on the enhancement of the SSP initiative (serving as Partnership Mentors; enhancing the processes or support resources for SSP).

Governance & Strategy

Student-Staff Partnership Projects within the Governance & Strategy Stream seek to enhance student voice and supports within the decision-making processes of the University.

- Student and Staff Partners co-developing university strategy or policy that either has a direct or indirect impact on the UQ student experience.
- Student and Staff Partners co-developing support resources and mechanisms for students serving as representatives.
